MOTION TO EXTEND SETTLEMENT SCHEDULE DEADLINES

Entergy New Orleans, LLC (“ENO” or the “Company”) respectfully submits this Motion seeking to extend the settlement schedule deadlines established by Council Resolution R-18-353. All parties in the case (i.e., Alliance for Affordable Energy, Air Products, 350 New Orleans, and the Council Advisors) support this motion. The Company filed its Renewables Portfolio Application on July 31, 2018. The Company, however, has certain updates (i.e., plant costs, economics, filing of an executed agreement) that, in the interest of full transparency, it would like to file into the record for the consideration of the parties before they file their comments/position papers. The Council set a period in this proceeding designed to determine whether the parties choosing to participate in the proceeding “can reach some consensus, within a reasonable period of time and without an extensive and costly litigated proceeding.” Resolution R-18-353 also states that in the event that the parties are unable to reach consensus on the issues raised in ENO’s Application, then a procedural schedule that allows for the expedited development of an evidentiary record and hearing upon which it can render a decision would be adopted.

Currently, Comments and/or Position Statements from all Intervenors are due on October 26, 2018; the Advisors’ Comments and/or Position Statements are due on November 9, 2018; and ENO's reply comments are due on November 30, 2018. Finally, a Joint Status Report indicating whether the parties believe they can reach a full or partial settlement, contested or uncontested, to resolve all issues is due on December 7, 2018.

ENO will file its supplemental information by November 9th, and in order to minimize the delays associated with its update, the Company agrees to waive its reply comments in the settlement procedural schedule.¹ Accordingly, the parties request that the dates in the settlement schedule be amended as follows:

Intervenor Comments	November 30, 2018
Advisor Comments	December 21, 2018
Joint Status Report	December 28, 2018

In addition, if the parties believe that a settlement may not be reached, then the Council's Advisors shall file a motion on December 28, 2018 requesting that the Hearing Officer establish a procedural schedule consistent with Ordering Paragraph 4(g) in Resolution R-18-353.

WHEREFORE, for the above and foregoing reasons, ENO, with the support of all parties in the docket, respectfully requests that all settlement schedule dates established by Council Resolution R-18-353 be extended, as requested in this Motion.

Respectfully Submitted:
